

Titel: VL Datenerhebung – Empirical Political Research	Verantw.: Gschwend, Thomas. Carey, Sean. Durchf.: Carey, Sean .
Art der Veranstaltung: Vorlesung (English)	Angeboten im: Herbstsemester 2014

Kursbeschreibung:

It is critically important to use appropriate empirical evidence to evaluate theoretical claims in political science. This course will provide a conceptual understanding of the techniques and practical experience in conducting political research. This course will familiarize students with a range of approaches and methods used in the study of contemporary political phenomena. It concentrates on understanding empirical political research, using both qualitative and quantitative approaches. Particular attention is paid to the collection, analysis and utilization of quantitative data.